

PAWS makes appearance during ASU half-time show

ASU Cheerleaders pose with "Henry Wrinkles" and "George Cooney"

Arkansas State University basketball fans were treated to a special half-time show when former Paragould Animal Welfare Society pets and now spokes dogs "Henry Wrinkles" and "George Cooney" pulled out in their custom 'hummer' spreading the word of how important it is to spay and neuter pets and to always check with your local animal shelter or humane society before adopting a pet.

The dogs were dressed in ASU war paint, had on feathered head dresses and sported ASU T-shirts. R.C. Hobbies owner Quinton Robbins asked PAWS to join him during the half-time show as he showcased his remote controlled plane.

The dogs and plane circled the arena to the Queen song "We will rock you."

Tax-deductible donations to the non-profit animal shelter may be mailed to 1103 E. Kingshighway, Paragould, AR 72450. Shelter hours are Monday through Saturday from noon - 6 p.m., and pets for adoption may be seen online at paws.media99.com. Call the shelter at 240-0997 for more information.