

Rake Schell, 2, pets "Henry Wrinkles," a former Paragould Animal Welfare Society shelter dog during the summer reading program Thursday at the Greene County Public Library. "Henry" was adopted by PAWS volunteer Susan Boyd. PAWS director Laura Wood spoke to the children about proper pet care and safety. The reading program is held at 10:30 a.m. on Thursdays; at the library and lasts about six weeks.