

WANTED!

Don't be alarmed, folks. This one's not as mean as he looks.

As a matter of fact, this is one special pup with a knack for making people smile.

Meet Henry, local model and recent adoptee of PAWS, Paragould's Animal Welfare Society.

Henry is taking his new found celebrity in stride, he's just happy to have a loving family to go home to each night, and that's just what PAWS is all about: finding special families for special pets.

So, you're not just wanted, you're needed.

PAWS... your best friend's waiting for you.
